

LIFEGENMON and EVOLTREE Summer school on scientific writing, reviewing and publishing & Forest genetic monitoring knowledge transfer into practice & CAPABAL 6th TRAINING SCHOOL

6th – 10th August 2018,
Soca Valley, Slovenia

Call for participants

The need for knowledge transfer is emphasized both in the circles of researchers and practitioners, working in the field of forestry and other environmental fields. The LIFEGENMON, EVOLTREE and CAPABAL Summer school will provide training sessions to young and senior researchers and PhD students on the final steps of paper submission and reviewing process.

This training will have the main emphasis on the reviewing process and publishing the scientific papers. It is very suitable for researchers and PhD students who are close to submitting their scientific paper and would like some guidance and feedback on their paper.

The training will be an intensive 5-day experience for participants. It will include manuscripts reviewing and suggestions for improving from the teacher and also from other participants.

The school is co-organized with LIFEGENMON project, EVOLTREE and CAPABAL TN1401 COST Action, in cooperation with the Slovenian Forestry Institute.

Participation at the training is free of charge. Participants cover their travel and accommodation expenses. Grants are available from COST Action "CAPABAL" and reimbursements from EVOLTREE project (see the next page).

Venue

The training school will be organized at The Jelinčič farm (above the Soča River). The price for five nights (5.8. – 10.8.2018) is 250,00 EUR and includes accommodation, breakfast, lunch and dinner (full board). They offer accommodation in apartments or in rooms with several beds. Booking will be done automatically for the selected participants.
